To join us at

International Conference

Building Trust and Business Success through Participation – Towards the Development of Economic Democracy

November 25, 2015

Community Centre Tkalka, Tkalski prehod 4, Maribor

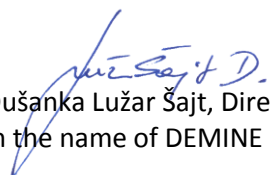

The conference is an opportunity for the international exchange of experiences and good practices in the introduction of employee participation in business practice. We will present the results of the Demine project (Handbook for introduction of employee participation in business practice and training for employees and employers) and inform the stakeholders and the public of current initiatives to spread economic democracy in Slovenia and partner countries.

We expect respected guests, the representatives of domestic and foreign successful businesses in which employee participation is an important segment of their success, the representatives of the Government of the Republic of Slovenia and responsible ministries, representatives of Chambers of Commerce, the Municipality of Maribor, the city of Pancevo, and other local communities and promoters of the initiative to amend the Slovenian Law on workers' participation in management.

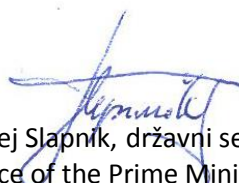

We invite you to join us at the conference and contribute to the exchange of experiences and good practices in the area of employee participation and its integration into everyday business practice. Attendance at the conference is free of charge. Applications will be accepted until Monday, 23 November 2015. You can fill in web application form or send it to the e-mail tajnistvo@fundacija-prizma.si. The number of places is limited, so hurry up with notifications!

Please find attached the program for which we reserve the right to make changes, which will be promptly posted on the project website <http://demine.eu/>, where you can also find more information on the project.

We look forward to sharing the experience with you!
